Viitorul Roman Society is a fraternal association for persons who identify with the Romanian culture and heritage. It was founded on April 18, 1926 being active ever since. In 1987 V.R.S. registered as a California not for profit cultural and aid organization. V.R.S. is a non-political organization; however it supports both American and Romanian goodwill activities. V.R.S. provides cultural programs in an effort to perpetuate the Romanian culture and heritage and is periodically sending aid to asylums and orphanages abroad. All work and services done by the officers and members is voluntary. No officers receive any payments for services and work. Applicants with a criminal record will not be accepted as members. Annual membership dues are non-refundable thirty (30) days after payment.

Please fill the form, sign and mail it together with a check made to Viitorul Roman Society to the following address:
